Lowcountry Rapid Transit

Modern transportation to transform our region.

The Lowcountry Rapid Transit project is a proposed 23-mile bus rapid transit system between Charleston, North Charleston and Summerville that would provide reliable travel, connect communities, and energize economic opportunities along the corridor

LCRT Community Workshops

Join the Berkeley-Charleston-Dorchester Council of Governments (BCDCOG) for a series of interactive public Community Workshops as we kick off the next phase of the Lowcountry Rapid Transit project.

Visitors will get an update on the Lowcountry Rapid Transit project and an opportunity to weigh in on the vision for the system.
